5. REQUESTS TO ACCESS RECORD

5.1. TYPES OF REQUESTERS

A requester is any person making a request for access to a record held by KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd. There are two types of requesters:

- (1) Personal requester; and
- (2) Other requester.

5.1.1. PERSONAL REQUESTER

A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record that relates to their personal information (as defined in PAIA and POPIA).

Subject to the provisions of this manual, PAIA, POPIA and other applicable laws, KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd will provide the requested information or give access to any record regarding the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged as indicated in [ANNEXURE B].

5.1.2. OTHER REQUESTER

This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties. The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements for access in terms of PAIA, including the payment of a request and access fee.

If a public body lodges a request, the public body must be acting in the public interest and provide details of the public interest that it is seeking to protect/rely on.

5.2. REQUEST PROCEDURE

5.2.1. SUBMITTING A REQUEST TO ACCESS A RECORD

The following procedural requirements serve as guidelines for requestors. The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in PAIA relating to the request for access to a record.

The requester must submit:

- (1) the prescribed form enclosed in ANNEXURE A – FORM 1;
- (2) proof of identity of the requester;
- (3) proof of capacity in which the requester is making the request and proof of authorisation to make that request (if applicable); and
- (4) payment of request fee and deposit (if applicable).

The prescribed form must be completed with sufficient detail to at least enable the information officer to identify –

- the record requested and the requester;
- which form of access is required;
- a postal address or fax number of the requester in the Republic;
- the right the requester is seeking to exercise or protect and the reason why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right; and
- the manner in which the requester wishes to be notified of the request.

If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the information officer.

The requester must state the nature of the right for which access to the requested records is required. The courts have indicated that access to the records must be “necessary” for the exercise or protection of the right so stated. This right of access may not be used to access records under criminal or civil proceedings, or where such proceedings have commenced. This right of access only applies to records in existence at the time of request.

If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally, which must then be reduced into writing by the person assisting the requester.

5.2.2. PAYMENT OF PRESCRIBED FEES (IF APPLICABLE)

There are two types of fees in terms of PAIA:

- (1) a request fee, which will be a standard fee; and
- (2) an access fee, which must be calculated by considering reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.

When the request is received by the information officer, the information officer shall by notice require the requester (other than a personal requester) to pay the prescribed request fee (if any) before further processing of the request.

If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations of PAIA for this purpose, the information officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

The information officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated in [ANNEXURE B].

A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required more than the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including planning to make it available in the request form.

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the information officer concerned will repay the deposit to the requester.

5.2.2. NOTIFICATION OF DECISION REGARDING REQUEST TO ACCESS RECORDS

KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd will, within 30 business days (excludes weekends and public holidays), but not less than 21 days, after receipt of the request and payment of the prescribed fee, decide whether to grant or decline the request and notify the requester in the manner indicated by the requester in [ANNEXURE A – FORM 1].

Subject to the provisions in PAIA, in respect of extensions, KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd will process the request within 30 days from when the request is received and the fee is paid, or within any extension timeline, unless the requester has stated special reasons which would satisfy the information officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods could not be complied with. Only in exceptional circumstances can this timeline be less than 21 days. KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd cannot decide to shorten the period of 21 days where a requester (other than a personal requester) has requested access to information on a third party.

5.3. DUTIES OF INFORMATION OFFICER REGARDING REQUESTS

5.3.1. DUTY TO RENDER REASONABLE ASSISTANCE

Information Officer of KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd will be expected to render such reasonable assistance, free of charge, as is necessary to enable the requester or data subject to comply with the prescribed process for submitting a request.

5.3.2. REFUSAL OF REQUESTS DUE TO NON-COMPLIANCE

If a requester or data subject has made any request that does not comply with the requirements of PAIA or POPIA, the Information Officer concerned may not refuse the request because of that non-compliance, unless the Information Officer has –

- (a) notified the data subject or requester of his/her intention to refuse the request and stated in the notice, the reasons for the contemplated refusal, as well as his/her availability to assist that requester or data subject to remove the grounds for refusal;
- (b) given the requester or data subject a reasonable opportunity to seek such assistance;
- (c) as far as reasonably possible, furnished the requester or data subject with any information that would assist the making of the request in the prescribed form; and
- (d) given the requester a reasonable opportunity to confirm the request or alter it to comply with section 18 of PAIA or 24 of POPIA.

5.3.3. REQUESTS TO ACCESS HEALTH RECORDS

In the case of health records, if the Information Officer is of the opinion that the disclosure of the record to the relevant person would be likely to cause serious harm to their physical or mental health, or well-being, the Information Officer may only give access to the record if the requester proves to the satisfaction of the information officer that adequate provision is made for such counselling or arrangements as are reasonably practicable before, during or after the disclosure of the record to limit, alleviate or avoid such harm to the relevant person.

5.3.4. ANNUAL REPORTS ON REQUESTS TO ACCESS RECORDS

The Regulator may, annually, request an Information Officer of KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd, in terms of section 83 (4) of PAIA, to furnish to the Regulator with information about requests for access to records of that body.

5.4. EXTENSION OF PERIOD TO DEAL WITH REQUEST BY KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd [may extend the time period to notify the requestor of its decision to grant or refuse the request to access if –

- (a) the request is for a large number of records or requires a search through a large number of records and compliance with the original period would unreasonably interfere with the activities of KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd;
- (b) the request requires a search for records in, or collection thereof from, an office of KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd not situated in the same town or city as the office of the head that cannot reasonably be completed within the original period;
- (c) consultation among divisions of KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd or with another private body is necessary or desirable to decide upon the request that cannot reasonably be completed within the original period;
- (d) more than one of the circumstances contemplated in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) exist in respect of the request making compliance with the original period not reasonably possible; or
- (e) the requester consents in writing to such extension.

If a period is extended by KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd, the information officer will, as soon as reasonably possible, but in any event within 30 days business days (excludes weekends and public holidays), after receipt of request notify the requester of that extension. The notification of extension will state the period of the extension and the reasons for the extension.

5.5. REQUESTS TO ACCESS INFORMATION ON A THIRD-PARTY

Where a requester (other than a personal requester) has requested access to information on a third party, PAIA provides that the third party whose information is requested must be given 21 days in which to make representations to refuse access or give written consent for the disclosure of the record to the requester. It may not always be possible for KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd to comply with all refuse representations. For example, when a court order had been served for the access. KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd cannot decide to shorten the period of 21 days where a requester (other than a personal requester) has requested access to information on a third party.

5.6. RECORDS THAT CANNOT BE FOUND OR DO NOT EXIST

If all reasonable steps have been taken to find a record and such record cannot be found or the record does not exist, then the group shall notify the requester, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, that it is not possible to give access to the requested record.

The affidavit or affirmation shall provide a full account of all the steps taken to find the record or determine its existence, including details of all communications by the group with every person who conducted the search.

Notification of record cannot be found or the record does not exist shall be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for purposes of PAIA.

If the record in question is later found, the requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the requester in [ANNEXURE A – FORM 1], unless access is refused by KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd as set out in this manual and/or in accordance with PAIA.

5.7. ACCESS TO HEALTH RECORDS

If KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd grants a request for access to a record provided by a health practitioner about the physical or mental health, or well-being of the requester or of the person to whom the record relates, and KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd is of the opinion that the disclosure of the record to the relevant person might cause serious harm to his or her physical or mental health, or well-being, the information officer may, before giving access consult with a health practitioner who has been nominated by the relevant person.

If the relevant person is —

- (a) under the age of 16 years, a person having parental responsibilities for the relevant person must make the nomination; or
- (b) incapable of managing his or her affairs, a person appointed by the court to manage those affairs must make that nomination.

If, after being given access to the record concerned, the health practitioner consulted is of the opinion that the disclosure of the record to the relevant person, would be likely to cause serious harm to his or her physical or mental health, or well-being, KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd may only give access to the record if the requester proves to the satisfaction of the Information Officer that adequate provision is made for such counselling or arrangements as are reasonably practicable before, during or after the disclosure of the record to limit, alleviate or avoid such harm to the relevant person.

Before access to the record is so given to the requester, the person responsible for such counselling or arrangements must be given access to the record.

5.8. DECISION REGARDING REQUEST TO ACCESS

5.8.1. DECISION TO GRANT ACCESS

If the request for access is granted the notice of decision to grant access must state –

- the access fee (if any);
- the form in which access will be given; and
- that the requester may lodge an application with a court against the access fee to be paid or the form of access granted, and the procedure for lodging the application.

5.8.2. DECISION TO REFUSE ACCESS

If the request for access is refused the notice of decision to refuse access must –

- state adequate reasons for the refusal, including the provisions of any Act relied on;
- exclude, from any such reasons, any reference to the content of the record; and
- state that the requester may lodge an application with a court against the refusal of the request, and the procedure (including the period) for lodging the application.

The main grounds for KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd to refuse a request for records relates to the mandatory protection –

- of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of PI of that natural person;
- of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains –
  - trade secrets of that third party;
  - financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
  - information disclosed in confidence by a third party to KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- of confidential information of third parties if disclosing such would or could constitute a breach of the duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of any agreement;
- of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
- of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- of the commercial activities of the group, which may include –
  - trade secrets of KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd;
  - financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd;
  - information which, if disclosed, could put KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;

- a computer programme which is owned by the group, and which is protected by copyright.
- of the research information of KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.

5.8.3. PARTIAL REFUSAL OF REQUEST

KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd will disclose every party of the record which does not contain and can be reasonably severed from any part that contains information which may or must be refused in terms of PAIA and this manual.

The part of the record that is disclosed to the requester is subject to the provisions in PAIA and this manual that applies to requests where access is granted, for example the payment of prescribed access fees. The part of the record that is not disclosed to the requester is subject to the provisions in PAIA and this manual that applies to requests where access is refused, for example the KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd must notify the reasons for refusal.

5.8.4. DEEMED REFUSAL OF REQUEST

If KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd fails to give the decision on a request for access to the requester concerned within 30 business days from when the request is received and the fee is paid, or within the extended timeline, it will be regarded as a decision to refuse the request.

5.9. REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO REQUESTER

5.9.1. INTERNAL REMDIES

KHUSA Consulting (Pty) Ltd does not have internal appeal procedures. As such, the decision made by the information officer is final, and requestors will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if a requester is not satisfied by a decision made by the information officer, for example for refusing access, for imposing access fees, or for extending the time period in which the response is due.

5.9.2. EXTERNAL REMDIES

Subject to the provisions of PAIA, a requestor that is dissatisfied with an information officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 180 days of notification of the decision, apply to a court or to the information regulator for relief.

Likewise, a third party dissatisfied with an information officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 180 days of notification of the decision, apply to the information regulator or to a court with appropriate jurisdiction for relief.

Notice of Appeal, Form B, in terms of Section 75 of PAIA [Regulation 8], can be found on the website of the information regulator under the "Documents" section (www.justice.gov.za/inforeg).
